People with a proper amount of desh are favored in all walks of fife, in locked up charged with having shot him. According to the police the couple quarreled in their room at 2:39 this morning and Mrs. Clapp neized a heavy fevolver and shot twice. One bullet crashed through the man's mouth, emerging near the left ear.

At first the family and his physician attempted to conceal the facts, saying Clapp, who had been drinking and was suffering from nervousness, had accidentally inflicted the wound,
Clapp has had a career which has frequently brought him before the public. He is a grandson of Mason, "the shoeblack king," and inherited much money from that source. Four years ago his wife divorced him in New York. Shortly after the divorce Clapp married Mary Lenkell of this city.

After being cross-examined Mrs. Chapp sald the shooting was done while she was trying to wreat the revolver from her husband shands. Sho sald he drew a revolver from a hoister, which he kept under his pillow, and threatened to kill her. The police say the wound is of such a nature that it could hardly have been self-inflicted but that the bullet must have been fired from the front of Mr. Clapp and at some little distance.
